

CERTIFIED REGISTERED NURSE ANESTHETISTS

Playing a Vital Role in Washington's Health

History:

1891: Sister Peter Chrysologous Crevier administered anesthesia at Providence Hospital in Seattle

1899: Sister Mary Gregory Jutras administered anesthesia at Sacred Heart Hospital in Spokane

1935: School of Nurse Anesthesia founded at Sacred Heart Hospital in Spokane - it continues to this day as the Sacred Heart Medical Center / Gonzaga University Doctorate of Nurse Anesthesia Practice

2003: Governor Locke signs CMS Opt Out authorizing CRNA independent practice without physician supervision

Education:

To become a CRNA, a candidate must:

Obtain a 4-year baccalaureate degree and be licensed as a Registered Nurse

Have a minimum of one year critical care nursing experience

Obtain a Master's degree in Nurse Anesthesia from an accredited program (minimum 2 years)

Pass a national board certification examination

Obtain an Advanced Registered Nurse Practitioner License from Washington State

Demographics:

There are currently 842 practicing licensed CRNAs, 799 active members, and 48 student CRNAs.

CRNAs provide anesthesia in all setting: Hospitals, Ambulatory Surgery Centers, Offices, and Pain Clinics

CRNAs administer anesthesia at 67% of all Hospitals*

CRNAs administer anesthesia at 93% of all Rural Hospitals*

CRNAs are the only anesthesia providers at 72% of all Rural Hospitals*

* of hospitals that provide surgical services

Obstetrical Anesthesia:

CRNAs provide obstetrical anesthesia at 61% of all Hospitals

CRNAs provide obstetrical anesthesia at 88% of all Rural Hospitals

CRNAs are the only obstetrical anesthesia providers at 84% of all Rural hospitals

Contact:

Ellen Kraus-Schaeffer

WANA President
Spokane, WA

eeschaeffer@mac.com

Brad Johnson, CRNA

State Government Relations Chair
Spokane, WA

bjohnson87@live.com

Ashley Fedan, CRNA

Interim PAC Chair
Woodinville, WA

afedan@mac.com

Melissa Johnson, Lobbyist

Bogard & Johnson, LLC

Olympia, WA

melissa@bogardjohnson.com

JoAnn Kaiser, Executive Director

Spokane, WA

wana1@comcast.net

WASHINGTON ASSOCIATION OF NURSE ANESTHETISTS

13305 N Addison, Spokane, WA 99208 • Phone 509-466-7197

wana1@comcast.net • www.wana-crna.org